

please help maintain and preserved the independence of satellite radio in its quest and enhancement of providing recipients with traffic information and weather reports. Please do not let the bigger stations bully their way into stopping these two information that we get either away from home or at home.